Recommended tourism spots along the route

Ushiki-Joshi Park

about 850m from Anan Sta.

Once, there used to be a castle also known as "Tomioka castle," and the neighborhood flourished as a gorgeous castle town. Now, it is used as a place for residents' relaxation. From the observation deck beautifully decorated with LED lights, you can see all of Anan City. In spring, it is famous for the cherry blossoms that cover the park.

Yakuoji Temple

about 300m from Hiwasa Sta.

The 23rd stop on the Shikoku pilgrimage, this temple is famous for its steep stone staircase leading to it. Pilgrims traditionally give coins to the spirits while climbing these stairs to ward off evil spirits. Parking is conveniently located along Route 55. It is also only a 5-minute walk from Hiwasa station.

Tebajima Island

about 600m from Mugi Sta. to the boat dock

Located on this small island is a pond where the rare Shiratamamo moss, a living national treasure of Japan, grows naturally. About 70 people live here, but as there are no cars on the island, visitors are able to walk freely on the promenade and enjoy the beautiful scenery at a relaxed pace.

The Ocean Natural Museum Marine-Jam

about 3.2km from Michinoeki Shishikui Onsen bus stop

You can see the beautiful coral of Takegashima Marine Park and colorful tropical fish from the undersea observatory of the Blue Marine tour boat. There is a "small aquarium of the island" that reproduces the sea of Takegashima in the hall. It is becoming a popular spot where you can experience sea kayaking and snorkeling in the summer.

Michi no eki Toyo Town

nearby the Uminoeki Toyo town bus stop

You can buy local specialties and fresh vegetables here, no matter what, the seafood is fresh, low price and delicious! After you bought raw fish you can bring it to the restaurant in the store. It is very popular both of tourists and locals. Ponkan soft cream is also popular.

Muroto Schoolhouse Aquarium

nearby the Muroto Schoolhouse Aquarium bus stop

This aquarium uses what was once Shiina Elementary School. There are over 1000 fish, with more than 50 different types. There are marine animals such as sharks and sea turtles swimming freely in the outdoor pool. Another unique trait of this aquarium is that it still retains the school equipment, left as it was the day the school closed down.

Cape Muroto (UNESCO Global Geopark)

nearby the Muroto Misaki bus stop

Muroto is a place where you can see the breath of the earth look at magnificent terrain. You can touch Muroto's land and culture, including the strange rocks that protruded towards the Pacific Ocean, and the legend that Kukai had chosen as a place to practice this place.

Muroto Dolphin Center

about 700m from Muroto service office bus stop

You can touch the dolphin's skin while getting splash, and you can give a signal to dolphin. You can watch a dynamic jump at such a distance that you can hear the dolphin breathing, so not only children but adults are excited too. 'Dolphin swim' is also popular attraction. You can swim with dolphin.

Nahari Townscape

around Nahari Sta./Nahari Tatsumachi bus stop

There are 37 registered tangible cultural properties in 13 places. Most of traditional buildings are left along the old street, and they are keeping same appearance from the time of build. It takes about 2 hours on foot even if you walk the all courses slowly. It is recommended to walk around the city with looking a guide book.

Ioki Cave

about 700m from Ioki Sta./150m from Ioki E.S. bus stop

Here is a mysterious power spot. It is a sea cave drilled by a wave due to uplift of a stratum three million years ago. A fantastical world with a rock wall surprised by so much fern as it passes through the cave along the Ioki River. The green world into which sunbeam leaves come in is exactly the secret world itself.
